BWC Tree Testing Results

Key Insights

Respondents failed 4 of the 8 tasks

Worker comments from recent survey

"It would be great for forms to be more user friendly and common terminology be used when giving a determination on claims. This is my first time ever dealing with BWC and although the terminology you use is somewhat confusing, whenever I call in to get clarification the [CSRs] have always done a great job explaining things."

"The website is hard to use and hard for average person to understand."

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Conduct focus groups with workers to explore new navigation
- Tree test proposed navigation
- Suggested solutions: Include "signposts" and "scent trails" in new website design to help workers find information quickly

Worker comments from recent survey

"Honestly I think it's fear in filling out forms because the BWC will reject your forms for the most minor things, and it's not always worded properly how you want the information back to you so found it was safer to let my lawyer handle all forms."

"Use everyday language."

Executive Summary

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Overview

- New navigation for the worker section has been proposed by the OH BWC Worker team.
- The proposed navigation was “tree tested”, like a card sort, using Optimal Workshop.
- 44 Ohio workers participated and 35 (80%) of those completed all 8 tasks.

Goals

- Determine if workers can find information using the proposed navigation

Task 1 You need to complete a Workers' Compensation application for coverage, and you want to know if you can do this online.

- 51% (12 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 34% (8 of 23) of respondents failed
- 4% (1 of 23) of respondents skipped

Task 2 Where would you look for the treatment guidelines used by BWC?

- 83% (19 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 13% (3 of 23) of respondents failed
- 4% (1 of 23) of respondents skipped

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Task 3 Where would you go to learn more about the claims process?

- 39% (9 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 52% (12 of 23) of respondents failed
- 9% (2 of 23) of respondents skipped

Task 4 Where would you go to find out who the assigned Managed Care Organization (MCO) is for your claim?

- 8% (2 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 91% (21 of 23) of respondents failed

Task 5 Where would you go to find out how to appeal a claim decision?

- 30% (7 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 65% (15 of 23) of respondents failed
- 4% (1 of 23) of respondents skipped

Task 6 You suspect your chiropractor is billing BWC for treatments he is not performing, and you want to report this.

- 78% (18 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 17% (8 of 23) of respondents failed
- 7% (1 of 23) of respondents skipped

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Task 7 Where would you go to find out how to sign up for direct deposit to receive compensation benefits?

- 83% (19 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 17% (4 of 23) of respondents failed

Task 8 Where would you go to change your physician?

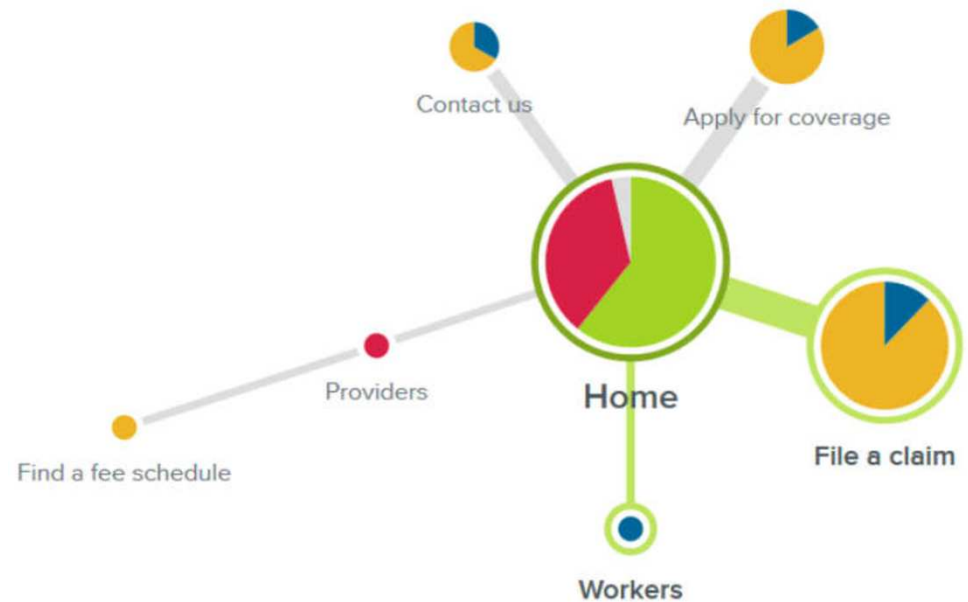

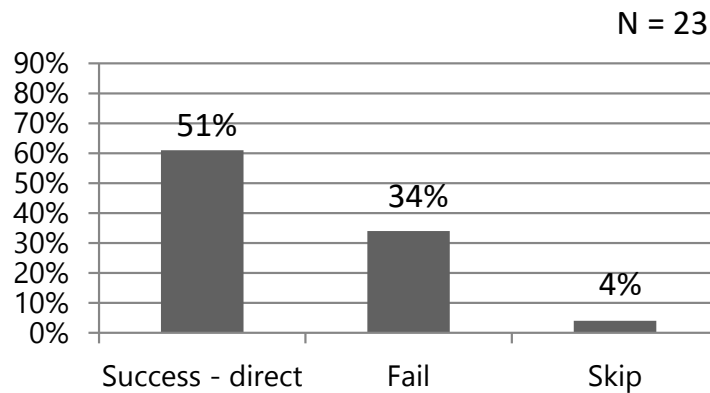

- 9% (2 of 23) of respondents succeed
- 83% (19 of 23) of respondents failed
- 9% (2 of 23) of respondents skipped

Suggested Solutions

Overview

BWC users adapted to the current website design by calling the call center for help finding information on the website.

Suggested solutions for the new website design include:

- Common searches, also called scent trails, which can help workers find information quickly
- Some websites use signposts, which are static boxes of common links, to help users find to popular pages quickly

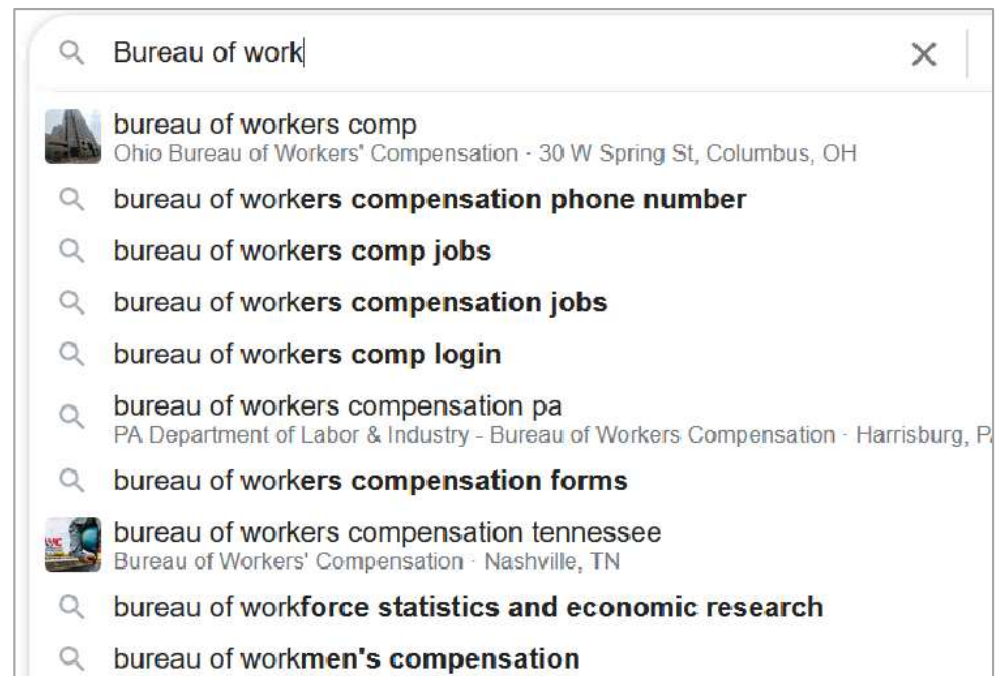

Common Searches

Many websites display common search queries, also called trending searches, to help users get to the desired information quickly.

Common searches, also called scent trails, which can help workers find information quickly

Signposts

Subject line: Would you like to help BWC redesign the website?

Hi,

The Ohio Bureau of Worker's Compensation is embarking on a website redesign! One of the first steps is to create an easy-to-use website navigation.

More about the test:

- We have created a series of questions and tasks with proposed navigation where you would look to find answers.
- This "tree test" should only take about 10 minutes to complete.
- You can complete it anytime during the test cycle of February 2016.
- It can be completed it remotely in any quiet area with computer access.

We'd love to get your feedback. If you're interested, please click the link below:

Your opinion counts! Thank you for helping us redesign the website. We appreciate you taking time out of your day to be involved.

OH BWC Worker Team

Participant Locations

All BWC certified workers were sent the tree test invitation. BWC does not collect demographic data. Nine Ohio workers* abandoned the test. 35 completed all tasks. Location information was the only statistic gathered from Optimal Workshop.

Location	#
Columbus, Ohio	10
Cincinnati, Ohio	8
Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio	8
Dayton, Ohio	5
Jackson, Ohio	4
Newark, Ohio	4
West Palm Beach, Florida	2
Wadsworth, Ohio	1
Myrtle Beach, South Carolina	1
Dublin, Ohio	1
TOTAL	44

*In Ohio, all workers with one or more employees must, by law, have workers' compensation coverage.
